Skyline

PUBLISHED BY UNITED TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL
EAST MOLINE, ILLINOIS

Mr. Dawson

As a city's skyline grows with the passing years, so does the stature of young people in high school grow as the years pass. When a class enters school, the members' personalities and characters are just beginning to take form, like the foundations and low-lying structures of the skyline. In a year or two, changes occur. Each year during high school there is growth. By the time the senior year draws to a close, there is a definite pattern visible. Some individuals seem like the great skyscrapers reaching toward the sky; others may not stand out so clearly as dominant peaks but all have taken definite form. They all fit into the picture and appear clearly as a part of the skyline against the horizon of the future.

The height of each student's part of this skyline is determined in large part by his own desires and his personal ambitions. All cannot build a structure of the same height, but each one can increase his dwelling place and make a worthwhile place for himself in the skyline.

May the students of United Township High School resolve that they will build for themselves "more stately mansions — as the swift seasons roll." When each youth in our community strives to build as stately a mansion for his own soul as possible, we will have many "tall men, sun crowned, who live above the fog" in the skyscrapers of the building.

Be a skyscraper in our Skyline.

FOREWORD

On a high hill, the "bluff" of the Mississippi, the varied shapes and levels of United Township High School loom against the sky. Life within the school has varied angles and levels as the 1959 Skyline has tried to show.

The academic portion of our skyline changed somewhat this year as the program for superior and talented students was extended. In addition to the junior and senior English classes which have always been divided into regular, college prep, and developmental, this year under a special program sponsored by the North Central Association, U.T.H.S. freshmen were grouped according to ability in science, math, and English. Next year the program will include sophomores. U.T.H.S. is fortunate to be among the one hundred schools in the nine states in the North Central Association territory chosen to take part in this experimental program and receive the benefits of their guidance.

Looming high on the sports skyline was the very successful basketball season as the team won conference and regional first place titles and were defeated in the sectional by Galesburg who went on to win third in state.

U.T.H.S. played host to both the Pekin District Student Council Convention and the Sectional Speech Contest. The PEP Club and Hi-Y Club were organized. Several band members were judged competent enough to enter the State Music Contest held in Elmhurst.

Students' participation and accomplishment in scholastic, sports and extra-curricular pursuits shape our lives within the school. As the faculty and student personnel change, so does our skyline.

There's work to be done. The freshmen and sophomores in study hall each have their own method of doing it.

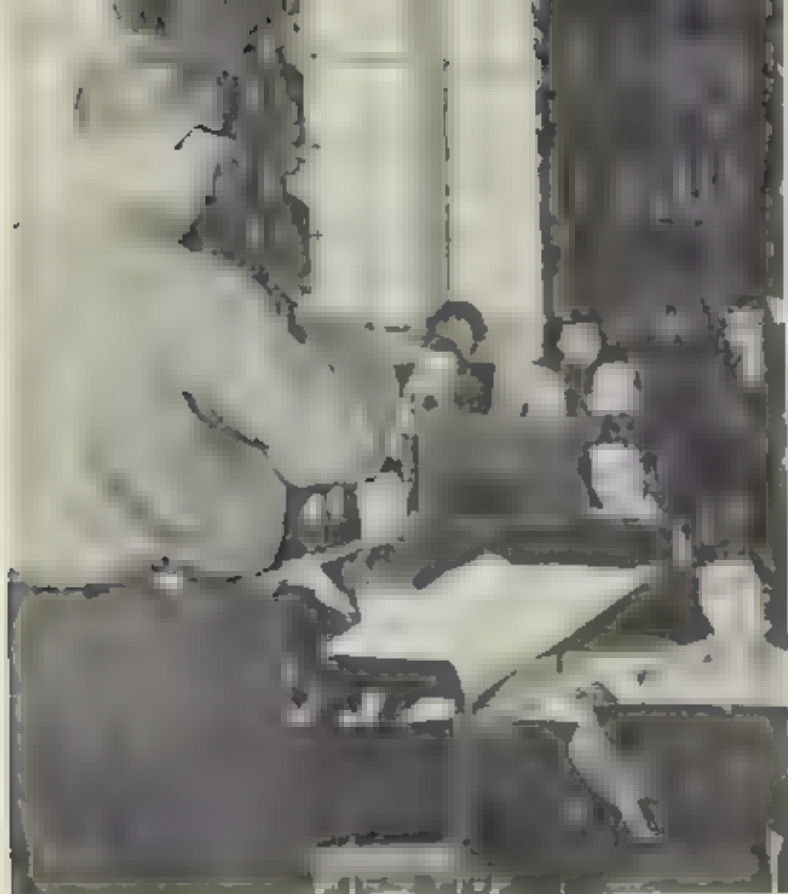

SCENES ON

Ooops! Careful of the tray, Sally. Seating is sometimes a problem in our crowded cafeteria.

"Got any English themes for sale, grade A?" Mr. Nelson and his student staff are sorry they can't fill the orders.

There are sweeter sounds than those heard in rehearsals. Mr. Thoman's group will make them at the concert

'So you see' Tom and Larry seem interested in what Cecil is telling them

THE SKYLINE

How do we get there from here? The winter was really one that often blanketed us with snow. As the picture shows, too often we were surprised by the unpredictable weather

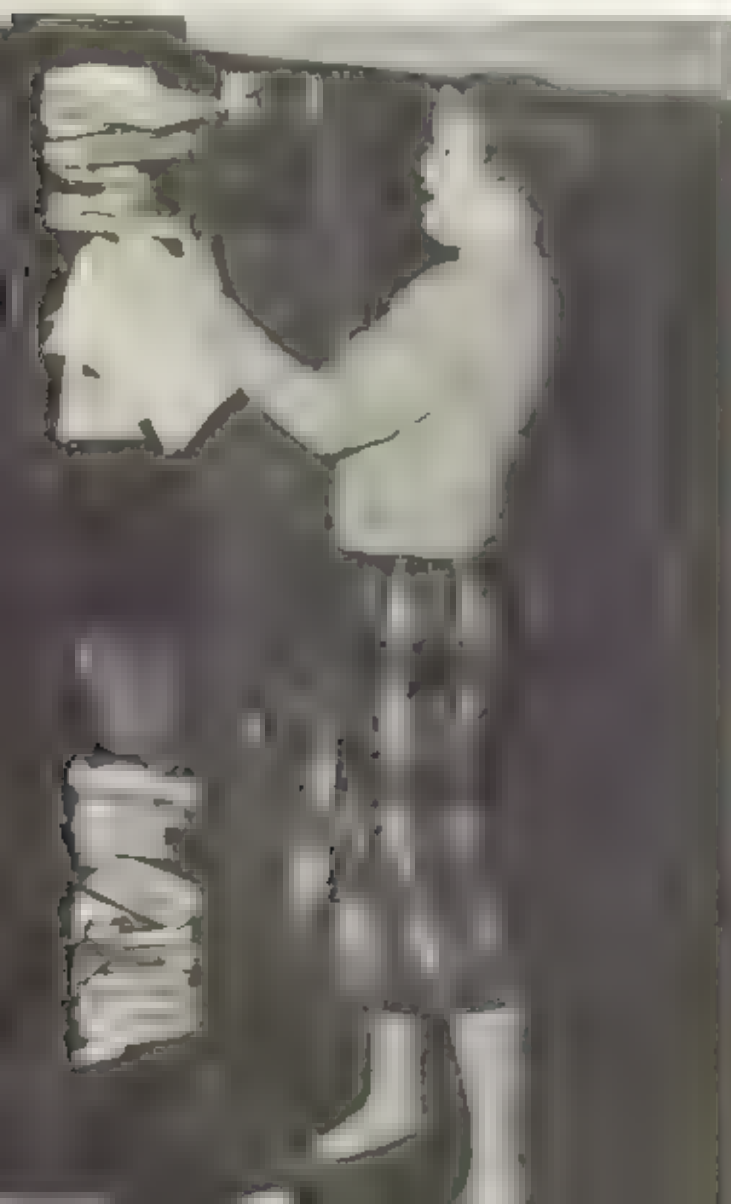

"Throat sore, knees weak?" Ken Burns had a case of whatever it was that most of us had a case of.

"From the Hilltop." The snow makes our view very beautiful.

MORE SKYLINE

"Can't understand it," says "Mike." "It's only the third week of school!"

The candy worshippers form a magic ring, and with pieces of silver swell the coffers of the speech department

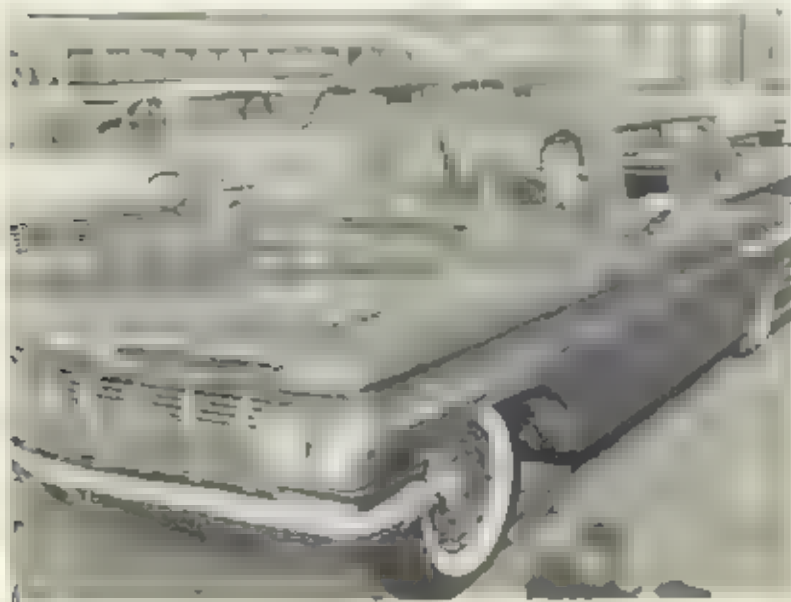

On to Victory - These words were ever-present this year but were also the theme of the beautiful senior class float

SCENES

Curtis is able to make his Model A the best, but being a girl, Sally has to start with a new one.

Kathy got a funny one! Around the break in semesters seniors begin to plan for the following year. College catalogues, provided by Mr. Pierson, are very interesting and even seem to provide some humor.

Seniors

Standing because of their positions in senior class officers are Carrie Sturgeson, secretary, Judy Hower, vice-president, Janet Underhilde, treasurer, Gary Hobbs, president, and Mr. Pierson, class advisor.

SENIORS

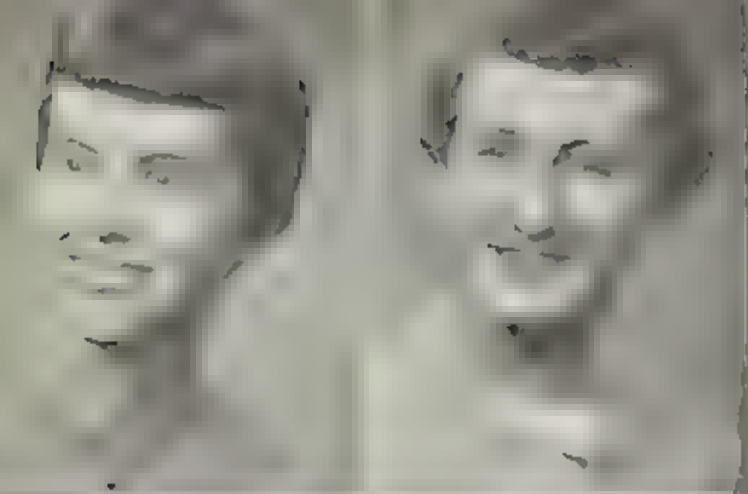

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are all saying farewell to their many friends in the Senior Class. Some seniors will go on to college, and some will get jobs. Whatever they do, they will always look back to their high school days. Although there were worries of homework and exams, there were also fun and excitement. They will always remember the exciting games, working on the senior float, "Kick Off To Victory," going to the Junior-Senior Prom, and attending the Senior Ball. Most of all they will have their diplomas to remind them of the day they walked down the aisle at Commencement.

The Junior Rotarians who attended the Rotarian meetings were: Row 1: Ellis Luster, Jerry Beverlin, Jim Pierson, Dennis Anderson, Larry Nahr-gang. Row 2: Bill Clark, Dick Lange, Joe Van Quathem, Cliff Arbogast. Row 3: Gary Hobbs, Lonnie Ostrom, Larry Leeper

Juniors

The Junior Class officers find time to relax in the middle of the day. They are Joanne Versypt vice-president, Inge Valko, president, Martha Smith secretary treasurer, and Mr. Yemm junior advisor.

JUNIORS

Juniors, back for their third year, are old hands at school activities. The float "We're Expecting Victory" was their homecoming project. They all wish that it would not have been so windy and thus had more success.

They, as juniors, have had a hard road to travel. Their junior themes, their first assignment, and their proficiency tests were their main objectives.

Spring brings the juniors as hosts for the seniors at the Junior-Senior prom. They were also in charge of Baccalaureate and decorations. A very busy year has been theirs. Now they are looking to their Senior year and graduation.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores, no longer the small fries of the school, planned to make this year a success. They started the year by bringing in a second humor prize for their homecoming float. The theme of the float was "Better Not Horse Around with East Moline." It consisted of a horse trompling some Moline players. Spring brought the sophomore assembly which everyone enjoyed.

Another spring activity was the sophomore class party which a large majority attended.

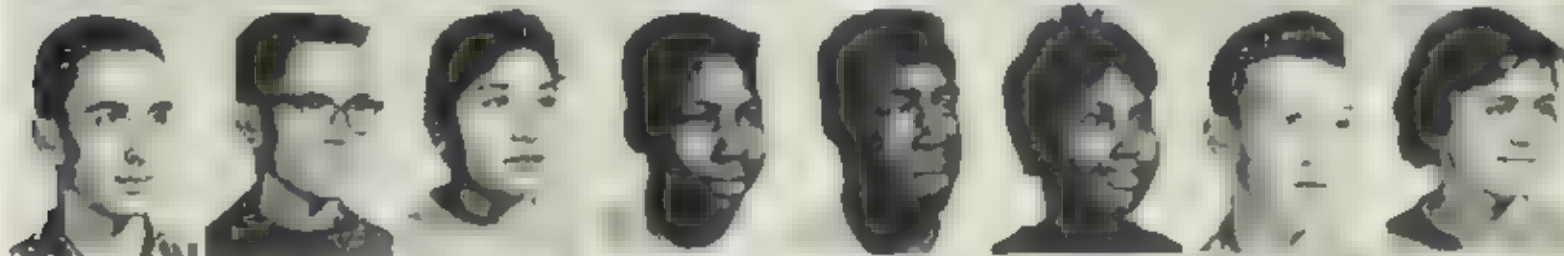

We would like to dedicate the sophomore section of the Skyline to Antonio Wright who passed away, after an extended illness, early in the year, and to Joan Achilles who passed away in April after an illness of three months.

Freshmen

The U.T.H.S. silhouette bulged a little more to make room for this year's freshman class. First row: Mrs. Enstrom, advisor; Edwaurdo Valde, president; and Glenda Turner, secretary. Second row: Mr. Collins, advisor; Carol Kelly, treasurer; and Jim Stopoulos, vice-president.

Not 473, nor 474, but 475 marked the total of this year's freshmen. As greenhorns the freshmen tried their hands at many new subjects and activities. Their first project, as a group, was the freshmen class Homecoming float. The theme of the float was "Beaten Up," featuring a huge egg-beater. This float showed how hard the freshmen worked to win first place in the humor division. The 1958-59 freshmen were the first class to begin to have classes arranged on the basis of student achievement in the fields of science, math, and English. The freshmen wound up their first high school year with an assembly and a class party which were enjoyed by all.

MISS DOROTHY CALVERT

Miss Calvert, head of the social studies department, teaches American history

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

In their American history class, Lois Boles, Yvonne Pendleton, Carol Carlson, Judy Marx, Dave Pollentier, Jay Newton, and Velma Moose work on an interesting project concerning Lincoln.

In the social studies department, sophomores are required to take world history and juniors are required to take American history. Beginning social studies can be taken by freshmen. During the senior year, one semester of Government is required and social problems can be taken as an elective.

Teachers of these freshmen and sophomore courses are Mr. Edward H. Peterhoff, social studies I and American history; Mr. John Wrenn, world history; Miss Marian H. Dean, world history; and Mr. Glenn A. Chivers, world history. Mr. Wrenn is the varsity football and wrestling coach and Mr. Chivers is the head of track and cross country.

Social studies teachers who teach junior and senior courses are Harvey L. Pierson, Al Zimmerman, Alexander W. Wasson, and William Yemm. Mr. Pierson teaches American government and is the senior class advisor. Mr. Zimmerman teaches social problems and American government and is assistant varsity football and track coach. Mr. Wasson teaches American history and is the athletic business manager. Mr. Yemm teaches American government and is the junior class advisor.

ART

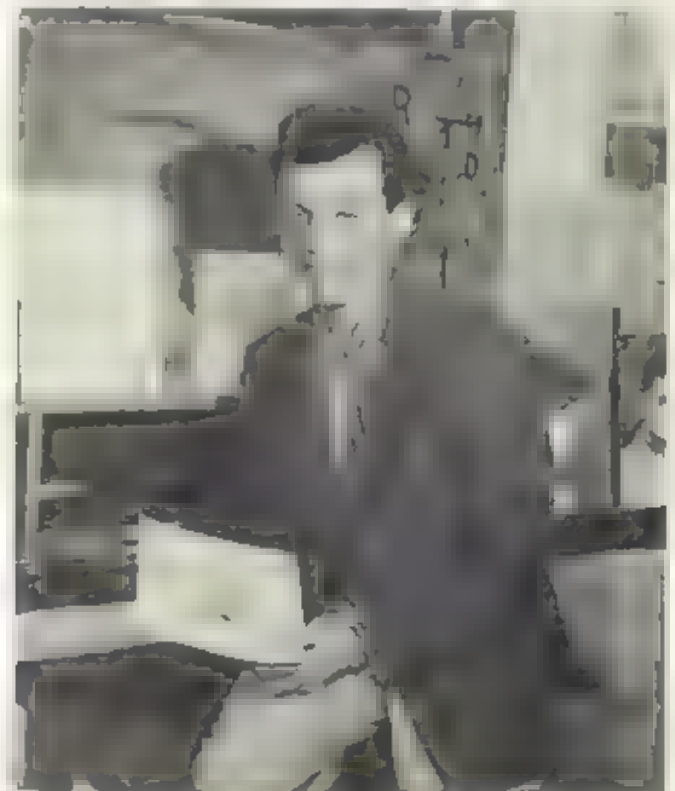

Working diligently on their art work are Bob Casillas and Sherry Noftsker, seated, and John Draper, Phil Kastner, and Diane Noftsker, standing.

The art department teaches the basic fundamentals of art. Three years of art are offered and these courses are open to all students.

MR. MINOR

Mr. Robert Minor is seen here admiring some of the better art work turned in. Mr. Minor teaches Art I, II, and III and is the sponsor of the art club, the 4 B's.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Voight, Mrs. Beverly Schwartz, Mrs. Jessie Frederick and Mrs. Isabel Hempling are four of our junior and senior English teachers. Mrs. Voight teaches sophomore English, Junior Composition B, American Literature B, and senior developmental English. Mrs. Schwartz teaches English II, Junior Composition B, and journalism and also sponsors the school newspaper. Mrs. Frederick teaches Junior Composition A, English literature, and public speaking and is advisor for all declamation work. Mrs. Hempling teaches Junior Composition B and American Literature A.

Without the ability to speak, read, and write effectively, people are lost. Since these skills are essential to life, the English courses at U.T.H.S. are designed to teach the fundamentals in each of these fields.

MR. JOHN W. STEVENS

Mr. John W. Stevens, head of the English department, teaches junior and senior college preparatory composition, English literature, radio speaking, acting, and play production. This year Mr. Stevens started a class in extemporaneous speaking and debate. Mr. Stevens directs all plays and sponsors the Thespians and the Panther Parade.

A new addition to our English department this year is this reading-accelerator being used by Amanda Ramos.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Miss Joyce Waller, Mrs. Fern McNab, Mrs. Marjorie Pierce, Mrs. Mary B. Easter, and Miss Lu Anna Johnson are five of the freshmen and sophomore English teachers. Miss Waller teaches English I and II. Mrs. McNab teaches English I and II and is sponsor of the Bible Club. Mrs. Pierce teaches English to both freshmen and sophomores. Mrs. Easter also teaches English I and II. Miss Johnson teaches English I and II and is sponsor of the Skatmo. Mr. Ernest Kivisto, missing from this picture, teaches freshman English and is also the varsity basketball coach.

MR. M. W. PRATT

Mr. M. W. Pratt, head of the science department, teaches general science and chemistry. He is also the sponsor of Camera Club, Bio-Chemics, and is the Audio-Visual Education Director.

The three science teachers pictured here are Miss Helen Buresh, biology; Mr. William Campbell, general science and physics; and Mr. Arthur Fudge, general science. Mr. Fudge is the assistant track coach and assistant freshmen football coach.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Science receives much more stress in this atomic age than it has in the past. In addition to general science and biology, chemistry, physics, and physics-math are also offered.

From the expressions of Mr. Harold Collins, general science and Mr. William Wheeler, general science, the freshmen will be pleased with grades.

Miss Buresh points out some of the interesting fish in the aquarium to biology students Rosemary Borrell, Martin Schoellermann, and Earl Rusk.

MISS BERNICE HOWARD

Is head of the math department, Miss Bernice Howard teaches Algebra I and plane geometry. She is also the sponsor of Future Teachers of America.

Teachers in the math department this year are Mr. George Braden, general mathematics and Algebra I; Mr. Robert D. Lewis, Algebra I and IV; Mr. George Bray, general mathematics; Mr. Leonard Engnell, general mathematics and Algebra I; and Mr. Merlin A. Nelson, solid geometry, Algebra III, and plane geometry. Mr. Lewis is in charge of intramurals; Mr. Bray is coach of freshmen football and sophomore baseball; Mr. Engnell is the golf coach; and Mr. Nelson is the book store manager and co-sponsor of Future Teachers of America.

A variety of courses are offered in the mathematics department. Freshmen are required to take either general math or Algebra I. The elective courses offered are plane geometry, Algebra III and IV, solid geometry and trigonometry.

Mr. Lewis seems to be happy that all his students are working so diligently. Not a puzzled expression in sight.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Some time are Mr. Reta O. Hester and Miss Nancy Servine having one of their many daily chats. Mrs. Hester teaches Latin I and II and Miss Servine teaches Spanish I and II and is sponsor of the Spanish Club Conjunction, synopsis, and declension are all a part of the study of foreign languages. The language department of U.T.H.S. consists of Spanish I and II and Latin I and II.

Diagraming sentences is hard, even with Mrs. Hester helping, as Barbara Anderson, Frank Komatar and Karen Skull will readily admit

LIBRARY

In the library can be found innumerable books filled with comedy, suspense, drama, and information. Of course, we must not forget those many magazines that were so helpful to the juniors in writing their themes.

Miss Esther McNutt and Mr. Dale K. Carrison, the school librarians, are looking through some of the library's many pamphlets. Besides their busy schedules in the library, Miss McNutt sponsors the Library Club and Mr. Carrison sponsors H-I-Y

Distractions from all directions divert these library students at this particular moment

Three of the teachers in our industrial arts department are Mr. John Cavanagh, Drafting and vocational drafting; Mr. Robert Sandush, auto shop and general shop; and Mr. Edward T. Drabik, general shop, metals, and foundry. Mr. Cavanagh also sponsors Tri-Min.

Mr. Paul Oliver, Woodshop I, II, and patternmaking; Mr. Robert Zesiger, general shop and machine shop; and Mr. Charles McCoy, general shop and drafting teach the courses offered to the freshmen and sophomores. Mr. Oliver sponsors the Rifle Club and Mr. McCoy sponsors the Student Council and is the sophomore advisor.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

Our school offers one of the best industrial arts programs in the state. This program includes general shop, machine shop, drafting, vocational drafting, vocational machine shop, two years of woodshop, patternmaking, metals, foundry, and auto shop.

MR. LESTER VINES
Mr. Lester Vines, head of the industrial arts department, teaches vocational machine shop.

Jim Rockwell, Otha Teague, and Bill Baker watch as Mr. Oliver demonstrates the safe way to operate a power saw.

Going over a new piece of music, are our two choral directors, Mullie Williams and Vincent Ahnquist. Mr. Williams instructs the Male Chorus, Varsity Band, and Cadet Band and Mr. Ahnquist directs the Choir, Girl's Glee Club Allegro Chorus, Crescendo Chorus, and Aeolian Chorus

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music department provides pleasure not only for the students that are entered in its courses but also for the people who attend their concerts throughout the year.

Choir members, Alice Leasenby, Susan Cady, and Delores Kastner, are practicing with Judy Hoover for one of the choir's many concerts.

MR. JOHN THOMAN

John Thoman, head of the music department, is director of the Advanced Band and the Cadet Band. He also instructs ensembles and teaches theory and harmony.

Pausing for a moment from their busy schedules are these teachers in the business department. They are Miss Helen Grant, Miss Helen Jannes, and Miss Rubyjohn Gorby. Miss Grant teaches typing and clerical practice and is the sponsor of the cheerleaders; Miss Helen Jannes teaches shorthand and is the sponsor of Pep Club; and Miss Gorby teaches typing and shorthand. Missing from the picture is Mr. Kieth Bare who teaches commercial arithmetic, commercial geography, and bookkeeping. He is also the assistant football coach and the sophomore basketball coach.

MISS ELEANOR ALLEN

Seated at the desk in the business office is Miss Eleanor Allen, head of the business department. Besides teaching advanced stenography and secretarial practice, Miss Allen is sponsor of the Business Club

Miss Grant watches Karrol Jeffers make use of a comptometer in the business department

The business courses at U.T.H.S. are designed to prepare students for either secretarial or clerical work. Students enrolled in either distributive education or secretarial practice spend part of each day at various jobs somewhere in the Quad-Cities.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Steve Morgan, Charlene Enstrom, and Robert V. Fairman are three members of our business department. Mr. Morgan teaches retailing and is the tennis coach and sponsor of Future Distributors of America. Mrs. Enstrom teaches typing and shorthand and sponsors Y-Teens and is a sponsor of the freshman class. Mr. Fairman teaches typing and bookkeeping and is sponsor of the Y.C.Q.C.

Teachers of girls' physical education this year are Mrs. Elaine Ruberg, Mrs. Dorothy Ward, and Miss Nancy Westefer. Mrs. Ruberg teaches freshmen gym; Mrs. Ward, sophomore and junior gym; and Miss Westefer, freshmen, sophomore, and junior gym. All three teachers assisted in running the Girls' Athletic Association.

With due and legal reason, the physical education classes might be considered the noisiest classes in school. Here is a class where students find an outlet for all the energy they have stored during the day and at the same time train their bodies and develop better coordination.

MISS LUISE PIANO
Head of the girls' physical education department this year was Miss Luise Piano. Miss Piano teaches sophomore and senior girls and supervises the Girls' Athletic Association.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Teachers of boys' physical education this year are Louis Matykiewicz, Jay Mercer, and R. J. Holmes. Mr. Matykiewicz, coaches varsity football and varsity baseball. Mr. Mercer coaches sophomore football and freshmen basketball, and Mr. Holmes is athletic director.

MR. ELLSWORTH BROOKS
Mr. Ellsworth Brooks, shown here in one of his rare spare moments, is head of the boys' P.E. department. Mr. Brooks has a busy schedule of teaching boys' freshmen and sophomore gym. He also teaches driver's training this year.

The girls in home economics II are shown here cleaning up the kitchen after a busy period of cooking

Shown here, relaxing for a minute in the home economics apartment are Miss Daphne Frane, Mrs. Beverly Carrington, and Miss Dora Reinholtz. Miss Frane teaches homemaking II and is the advisor for Future Homemakers of America; Mrs. Carrington, assists in sponsoring F.H.A. and teaches homemaking I and IV; Miss Reinholtz teaches homemaking I and III and assists in sponsoring F.H.A.

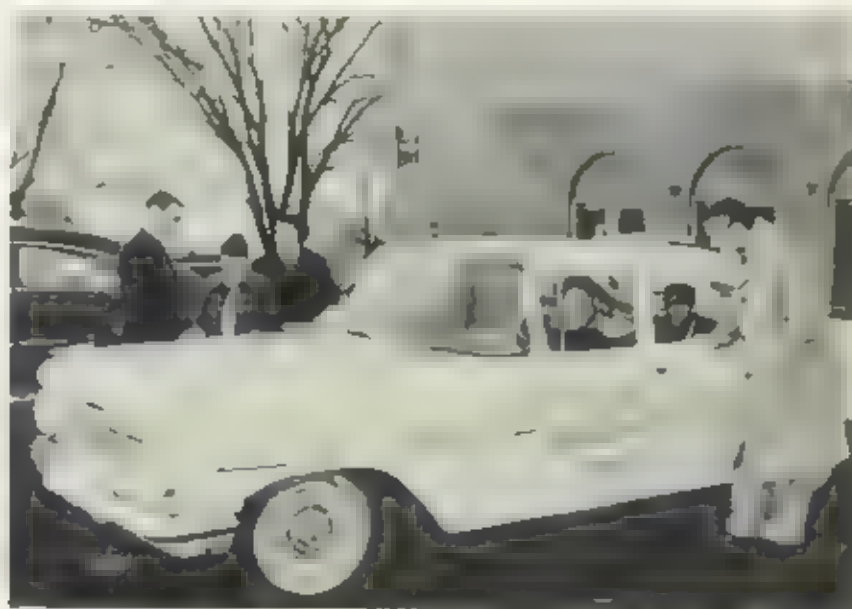

HOME ECONOMICS

In the home economics department, girls are given the basic training which they will need later in life when they become wives and mothers.

DRIVERS EDUCATION

Nerves of steel are required to be a driver training teacher. The two men who have these qualifications are Mr. C. F. Pullen and Mr. Joseph Dhondt. Besides teaching driver education Mr. Pullen is assistant baseball coach and freshmen orange football coach and Mr. Dhondt is the sophomore football coach and freshmen basketball coach

It was with great pleasure that some lucky students of I.T.H.S. climbed behind the wheel of one of our new driver training cars to learn to drive. Shown here, admiring the interior and the exterior of one of these cars are Mr. Pullen, Lily Ann Snyder, Vicki Huyvaert, Sid Harrington, Roland McCorkle, and Mr. Dhondt.

Driver education is an important part of the school curriculum in the high schools today. Classroom driver training was required for all sophomores and quite a few of the students received behind the wheel training also. Two new cars which were donated this year were very welcome.

STAFF

JANITORIAL STAFF

The custodians contribute to our school lives by providing a well-kept building for us to use. Row 1: Andrew Saev, Pete Vermeulen, and Ed Johnson. Row 2: Loren Borum and Frank Machu. Missing from this picture are Roy Murren, Clara Vermeulen, Fruman Jones, Rex Martin, and Melvin Hummel.

CAFETERIA STAFF

These are the capable women who have given us hot lunches throughout the year. Row 1: Bertha Pancrazio, Myrtis Gallagher, Georgina Williams, Irma Diericks, Hazel Allsbrow, Ranilda Belowski. Row 2: Linda Hicks (manager), Mabel Ziegler, Alice Gallens, Nadine Osbourne, Cleo Krueger, Evelyn Little, and Anna Wadsager.

BUS DRIVERS

Safely, through all kinds of driving conditions, our bus drivers have transported students to and from school each day. Row 1: Jack Skiles, Collins Wray, and Arthur Mihalopoulos. Row 2: Seraphin Versypt, Dewey Olman, Rex Martin, Melvin Hummel, and Neal McNeal.

STUDENT OFFICE GIRLS

It would be impossible for the class advisors to perform their duties without the aid of the student office girls. Those who work for the advisors collect attendance slips and keep a record of those pupils who are tardy. Some girls work in the general office answering the phone and taking messages.

Sports

CHEERLEADERS

Composing this year's sophomore squad are Sandra Tweddell, Diane Eshelman, Karen Ragen, Judy Perkins, Sherru Votlsker, Janet See, and Donna Knight.

Undoubtedly our squad was one of the finest produced by the school for some years. They proved this by beating the top team in Iowa and some of the best in Illinois. If a string of injuries and flu casualties had not hit the team, they probably would have had a better season.

Holding trophies which they justly deserve are Sinclair Patterson, best tackler; Jim Adams, best blocker; Coach John Wrenn holding the Blackman Memorial Trophy we kept for the defeat of Moline; Jim McMillin, most improved player; and Dick Lange, most valuable player.

"Now you see it; now you don't." Angie Vallego (40) and Jules Teronez (38) seem puzzled as to who has the ball

"Who left the back door open?" Orberie Giles (53), Bill Clark (59), Jim Adams (65), and Jim McMillin (72), open up the middle for Angie Vallego (40), who was just tackled from the rear.

"Take the bull by the horns." Jim Adams (65) knows how to get "ahead" as he downs a player with assistance from Val Bravo (35)

SOPHOMORE FOOTBALL

The young Panthers had a season which none could be ashamed of. With 6 wins, and a tie 13-13 to Rock Island, the squad bowed only to two teams across the river, Davenport and Clinton. With a record such as this, Coach Dhondt has undoubtedly supplied next year's varsity with some very workable material.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The freshman squad ran up an impressive number of wins during the past season which they are proud of. The division of the freshman squad into two teams, Orange and Black, will result in a solid sophomore team for the next year. The squads rounded out the season with presentation of awards and letters.

BASKETBALL

"Just a flash in the pan" is not one of the ways to describe this year's basketball team. The trophies in the trophy case will back this, as do the Quad City, Mississippi Valley Conference, and regional Championship titles. This was unquestionably the finest team this school has ever seen. The reasons for this can be attributed to the superb coaching of Mr. Kivisto. A combination of an experienced coach and a "hot" team resulted in the setting of new school records of which we can be proud.

Holding trophies which they justly deserve are Lonnie Ostrom, most rebounds, Gary Hobbs, most valuable, Dick Lange, holding captains trophy, Mike Dergo, most improved, Coach Ernie Kivisto, holding Ray Holmes Free Throw Trophy won by Lonnie. Gary, and Dick also shared the honors of being tri-captains.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

The sophomores had quite a busy schedule with twenty-three games at home and away. Although the season was not the best the sophomores have experienced, it will undoubtedly improve their playing ability for next year. The squad concluded the season with the presentation of awards and letters.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Both the Orange and Black freshman squads had a fairly successful season. With the two squads to choose from, the sophomores should have a strong right arm next year. The presentation of awards and letters closed the season.

Martens, Red Leeper, Rod Cook, Jim McMilla, Dick Hoskins, Russ Caldwell, Marty Damp, Jim Stopolus, Ed Valdez, John Crapp.

WRESTLING

With a large turnout of veterans from last year the wrestling squad was in line shape for a well rounded season. With the team doing well as a whole, Val Bravo and Larry Leeper won fame and recognition for the school in the state finals. Although Larry was defeated in the first round, Val went on and was defeated in the sixth round by one point, 3-2.

BASEBALL

As baseball is a spring sport, the goals achieved by this year's team can not be printed. However, based upon the record of last year's state-bound team and the large number of returning veterans, this year's team should achieve their goals.

GOLF

With only three juniors and a sophomore returning from last year, the golf team as a whole was rather young and inexperienced. Most conspicuous absentee is Joe England, who through his fine playing, won himself a trip to the state meet. This year's schedule called for twelve matches, including four Quad-City rounds.

Phil Bond, George Gavin, and Gary Canfield watch Jim Soucinek follow through on a hole-winning stroke.

With a turnout of ten lettermen and thirty-five freshmen, this year's Panthers posed a threat in the '59 season. The varsity had twelve meets on tap, including the district, Quad-City, and Mississippi Valley tests. Sophomores were also included in several of the meets and competed in the Davenport Sophomore Relays in May.

The squad had a big boost from the thirty-five freshmen who suited up. Row 1: Larry Williams, Jim Terronez, Steve Hernandez, Terry Van Klabern, Frank Deena, Gerold Pele, Duwayne Cremeens. Row 2: Manager Mickey Williams, Paul White, Marshall Spencer, Russ Caldwell, Clark Tracey, Woodie Wilkinson, Craig Athorp, Dick Blahr, Coach Arthur Fudge. Row 3: Jeff Williams, Frank Ammerman, Gerald Vogel, Jim Stickler, Gene Wildermuth, Earl Paasch, Duane Ash, John Cropp, Ed Valdes.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Although cross-country is not a major sport at U.T.H.S., it demands the same amount of determination and practice as does any other individual sport. A certain amount of teamwork was needed by the squad, in order to work their first five men across the finish line. This was no easy task as the team is running through woods, over hills, etc. and is not in close contact. The team closed the season with the presentation of awards and letters.

TENNIS

This year's squad had a lot to live up to compared to last year's squad. Last spring the team won 8 and lost 3, placed 5th in the Mississippi Valley Conference, tied for 2nd place in the District and Quad-City conference, and sent Dennis Sahr to the first rounds of the state finals.

TENNIS

Prospects were bright for this year's team. A large turnout, composed largely of returning veterans, made the team a threat for Quad City tennis honors. Last year's team copped the Quad-City doubles title and will undoubtedly steal it again this year. A total of twelve dual meets, the district, and Mississippi Valley meets were on ice.

The doubles pair, Sandra Rohren and Cookie Owens, won last year's Quad-City doubles title and are No. 1 contenders for this year's title.

The champs of the freshman-sophomore basketball tournament are Craig Weisbrook, Bob Thomas, Dennie Meyer, and Jim Hollowell. Camera-shy were Eugene Held, Bill Pugh, and Gaylord Vogler.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural sports were designed primarily for boys who want to play, but don't want to engage in regular sports. Mr. Lewis and Mr. Brooks have done a fine job of supplying the schedule which the boys need and want.

ART CLUB

The Art Club began the year with a hay-rack ride. They sponsored one of the after game dances and visited the State Hospital to see the oil paintings and other art work done by the patients. The Art Club earns money by doing posters and decorations for other clubs. The main objective of the club is to provide social activities for persons who have a common interest. Members are not required to be in art courses. The year's activities come to an end with a picnic. This year the picnic is at Lake Story.

BIBLE CLUB

The three main objectives of the Bible Club are to train its members for Christian leadership, to emphasize Christian standards in daily life, and to promote good fellowship among the students of U.T.H.S. and with students of other schools. This year, the Bible Club has had numerous parties for its members, and at Christmas, they prepared a basket for a family. At their regular meetings they had various educational competitions such as Bible quizzes within the club and with clubs from other schools.

Camera Club has been very active this year. Members have visited the John Deere advertising department and held a dance. Also, the club puts out the student telephone and address directory. Through the club, students gain knowledge concerning types of cameras and developing film, and printing and enlarging pictures.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

F.N.A., a club which trains girls for the nursing profession, is one of the most worthwhile organizations in school. The future nurses have sponsored a dance and gone on various field trips. Also, the girls take turns spending their Saturdays entertaining patients in the Crippled Children's Clinic at Augustana.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America is one of the most purposeful groups in our school. The objective of the club is to prepare members for the profession of teaching. Earlier in the year, members attended the Blackhawk Division meeting. The organization prepared a basket for a needy family at Christmas. The club's income comes from renting coat racks to other clubs for dances.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Holding the honor of having the largest membership of any club in school is the G.A.A. Many members took part in the G.A.A. play day which was held at East Moline this year. In addition to the usual play day games, an exhibition of speed-away, a new game, was given by the sophomore girls. Annual basketball and volleyball tournaments provided thrilling moments for members. Highlighting the year was the crowning of G.A.A. royalty and the G.A.A. dance.

LIBRARY CLUB

Library Club is the organization which provides us with the student assistants we see working in the library. Duties of the members include finding magazines, books, and information and checking out books. These are several conventions which members attend including the D.R.Y., which is the convention of library assistants from Rock Island, Mercer, and Henry counties. This year's Library Club held their dance on December 6th.

The officers of Library Club are Lana Berghult, secretary; Miss McNutt, sponsor; Larry Meadows, treasurer; Dorothy Homan, president; and Mr Carrison, sponsor

Again this year the Lettermen's Club sold Panther pep pins during football and basketball seasons and held two dances featuring cake raffles. Lettermen took turns selling programs at the basketball games. For any boy, belonging to the Lettermen's Club is a privilege. To be eligible for the club, a boy must have earned either one major letter or two minor letters. Mr. Kivisto is the sponsor.

"More pins to sell" Mr. Keisto tells Dick Lange, president of Lettermen's Club, Lou Adams, vice president, Gary Williams, treasurer; and Gary Hobbs, secretary.

Judy Riley, Pam O'Klock and Dick Lippel goes stand in line to buy programs for the basketball game from lettermen Ken Robinson and Bud Clark.

Shown with Miss Janner are the officers of Pep Club: Carol White, vice-president; Claudia Mayfield, secretary-treasurer; and two other officers.

PEP CLUB

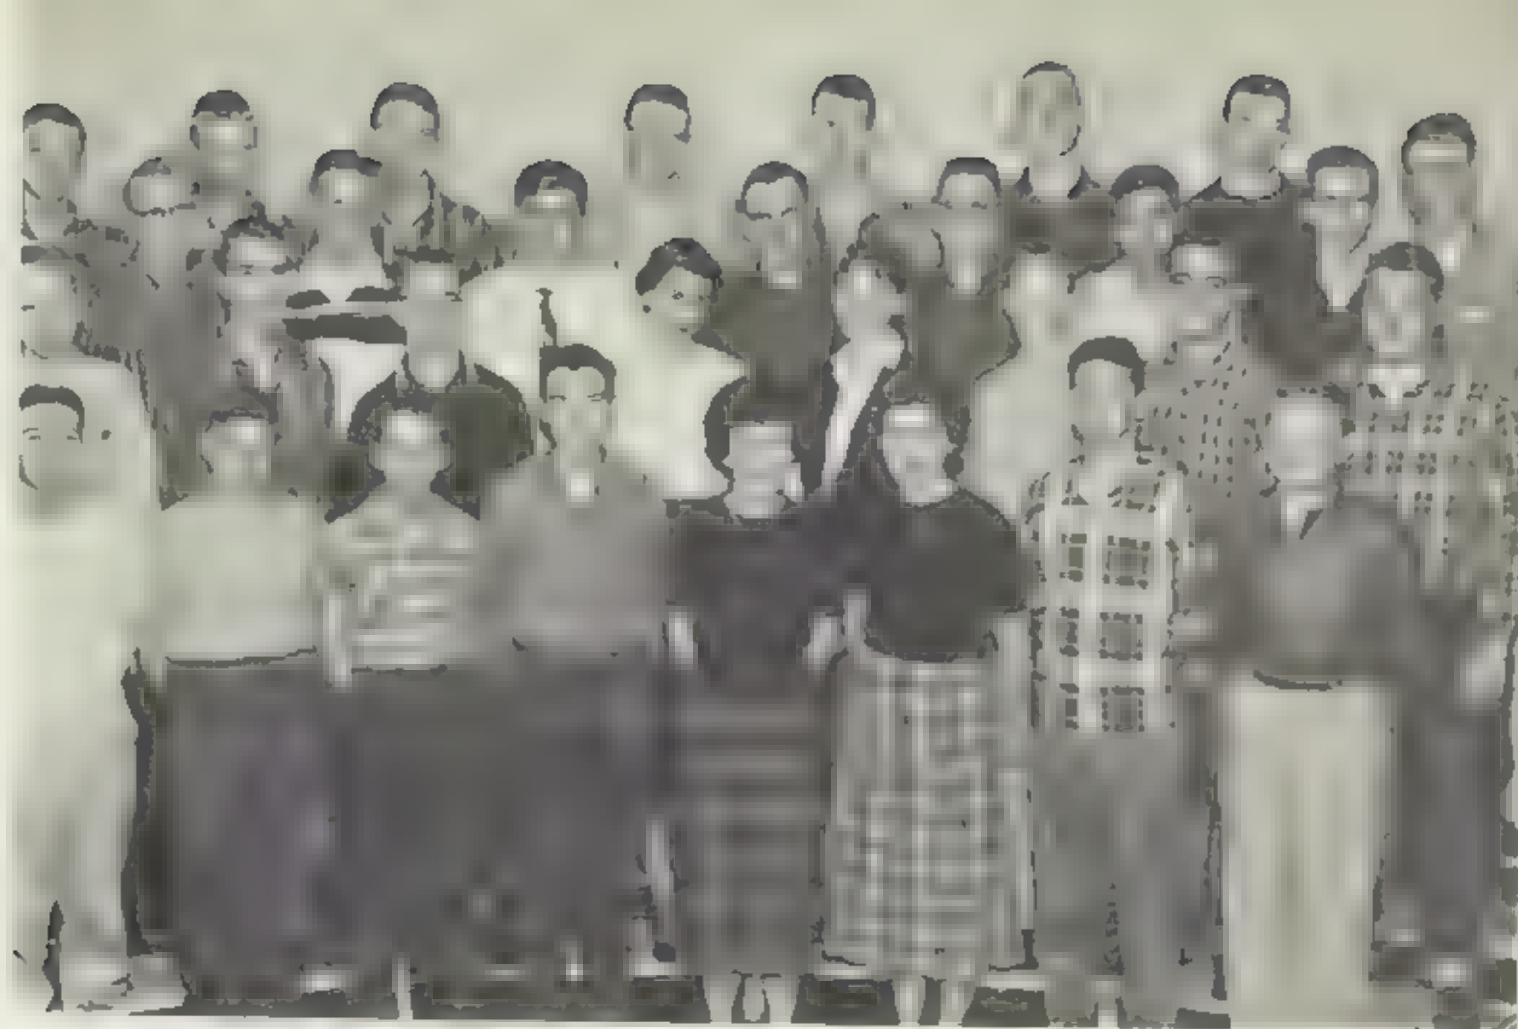

The newly organized Pep Club got under way during the '58 and '59 basketball season. Pep Club was allotted a certain number of seats behind the Lettermen's section at basketball games. All members were required to wear white blouses or shirts. They were given orange and black shakers and beanies. The purpose of the Pep Club is to co-operate with the cheerleaders in producing more school spirit and an organized cheering section.

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club, meeting the second Monday of every month, has been extremely active this year. Their special activities have included various films. Some of these were on Mr. Oliver's trip to Alaska, Mr. Freeland's trip to India, and safe shooting instructions.

This year, shooting meets were held in Moline, Milwaukee, and Springfield. East Moline won the match at Moline. The sponsor of the Rifle Club is Mr. Paul Oliver.

Mr. Oliver gives useful pointers about shooting to the officers of Rifle Club who are Dennis Anderson, treasurer; Ellis Luster, president; Gerald Goodwin, executive officer; Myra Guldenpfennig, vice-president; and James Plavak, secretary.

SPANISH CLUB

In the past year, the Spanish Club, sponsored by Miss Servine, has accomplished many things. In the fall, they sponsored an after-game dance and built a float for the Homecoming parade. They also had a booth in the spring carnival. At their monthly meetings, the twenty-five members talked about Spain and its people and customs.

Miss Servine, seated, is shown with the Spanish Club officers. Julius Terronez, vice-president; Louis Sierra, president; Hank Sandoval, treasurer; and Pat VanKlaveren, secretary.

THESPIANS

National Thespian Society has been referred to as the honor society of the English department. Its membership consists of actors, actresses, business managers and back-stage workers. In order to be elected to National Thespians, a student must have acquired ten points either by acting in a play or helping with production.

TRI-MIC

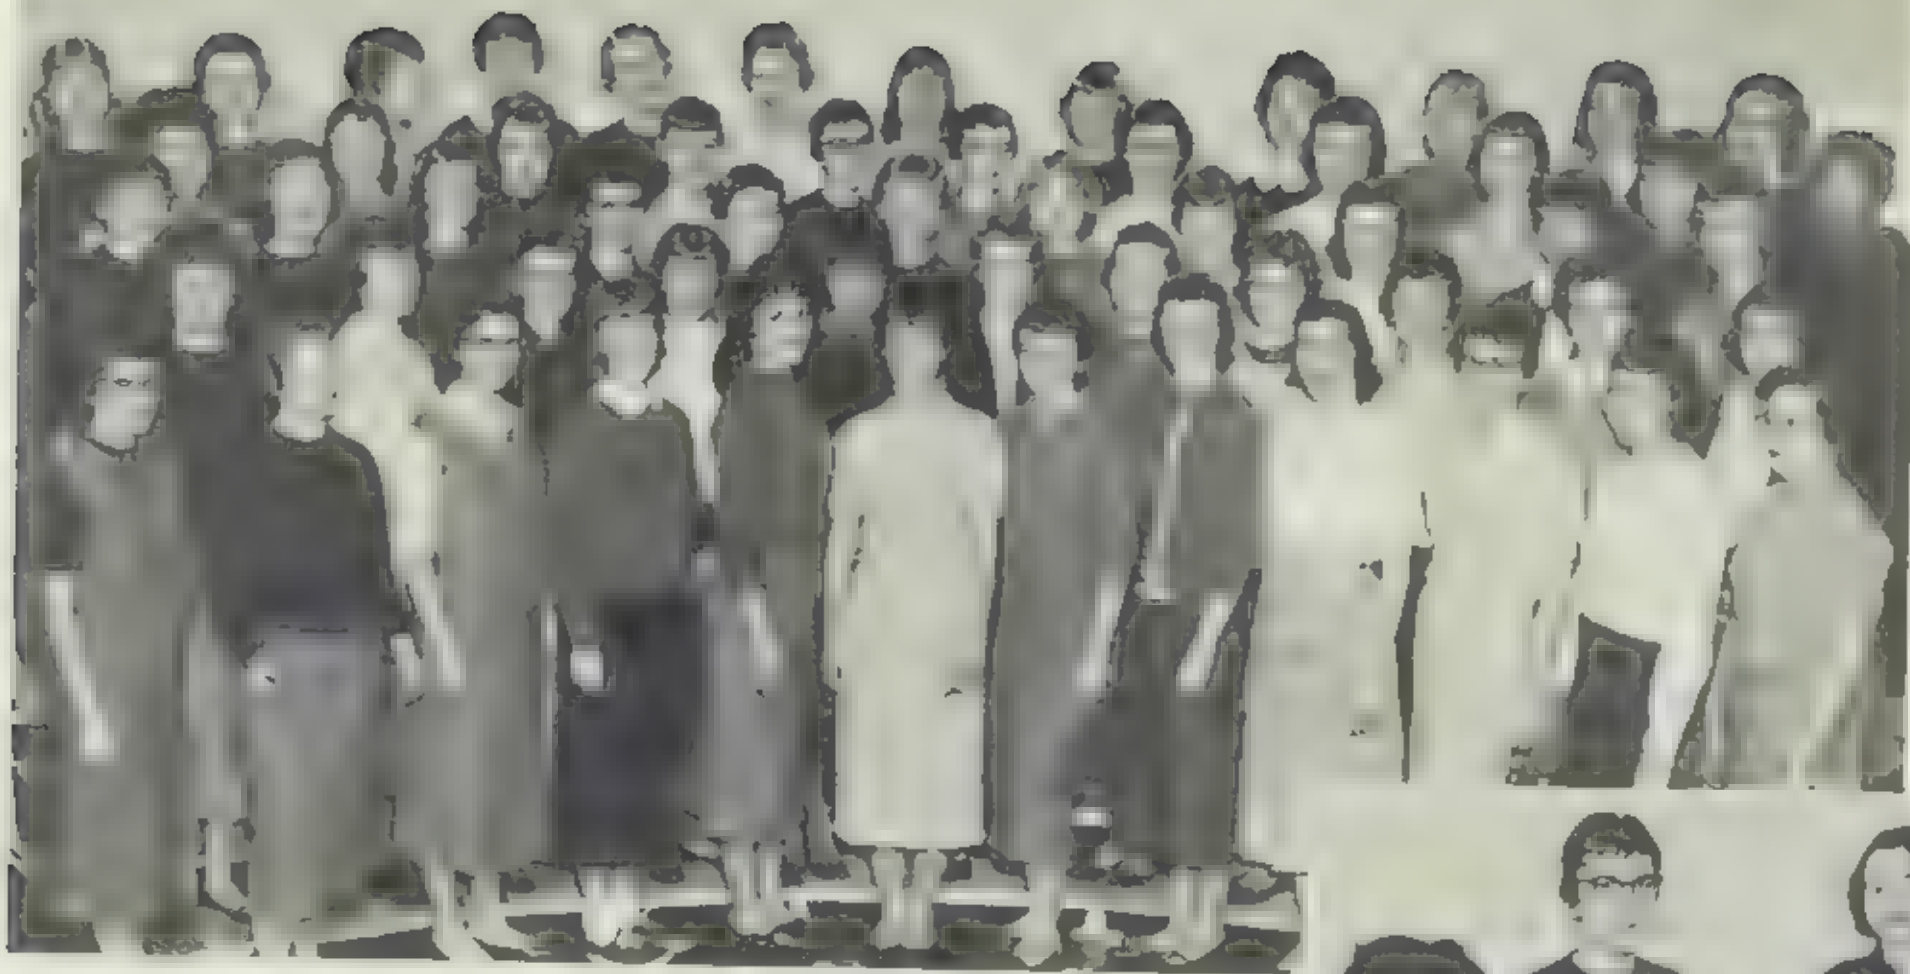

The Tri-Mic has completed its eleventh active year on the hilltop. Tri-Mic co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance and the Valentine Dance with the F. H. A. An extra attraction of the Valentine Dance was the crowning of two Tri-Mic members, Jim Flinn and Phil Bond, as Prince and King of Hearts. The aim of the Tri-Mic organization is to better understanding of the vocational fields which includes choosing an occupation, improving studies, and safety in work.

Mr. Caranagh, Norman Wilkens, vice-president of Tri-Mic; Dave Coder, treasurer; Fred Stulir, secretary; and Frank Trask, president, talk about their club plans for the year.

Y-Teens, one of the largest all girl organizations in our school, has been very active this year. The girls began the year with a picnic preceding a hayrack ride. Many Y-Teen members toured the State Hospital, and they held a dance following our basketball game with Aledo. Also, the group prepared food baskets on Thanksgiving and Christmas. Y-Teens are affiliated with the Y.W.C.A.

Delores Lewis, secretary; Carole Stevenson, ~~and president~~ ~~Sandra Murphy~~ treasurer, and Jean Warren, president are the officers of Y-Teens sponsored by Mrs. Enstrom.

STUDENT COUNCIL

United Township High School Student Council had the honor of being host to more than 500 students when it held the Pekin District Convention here in November. This year the Student Council, under the watchful eyes of Lonnie Ostrom, president, and Mr. William McCoy, sponsor, sponsored the first dance of the year, "School Daze," a clean-up campaign, and a "come as you are" dance at the end of the year. Climaxing the year for the Student Council was a pleasure trip to Chicago for all sophomore, junior, and senior members of the Council.

Chosen as delegates to the Quint-City Student Council were Lonnie Ostrom, Ron Hoff, Jim Pierson, Nancy Hall, and Lana Berghult.

BAND

April 9 was the date of the spring concert this year for the band. The Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. John Thoman and Mr. Mable Williams, joined the choral department in presenting the May Music Festival at Soule Bowl.

As in past years, many of the band members participated in the District Music Contest which was held at Galesburg on February 28. Many of those who competed at Galesburg were eligible to enter the state contest at Elmhurst on April 17.

Money earned from the sale of chocolate candy bars went to the Band Parents' Club to help them purchase a set of fourteen parade drums.

District Band Contest winners were Row 1: Virginia Jackson, bass clarinet solo; Dorothy Cattoir, clarinet solo and ensemble; Kathy Stoneburner, baton twirler; Judy Schadt, ensemble; Judy Erickson, ensemble. Row 2: Elizabeth Simpson, clarinet solo and ensemble; Wilma Myers, ensemble; Charlyn Buss, ensemble; Sandra Tweddell, ensemble; Wanda Myers, ensemble; Cathie Simpson, ensemble. A black and white photograph showing a large group of men, possibly a political or military assembly, standing in several rows. They are dressed in formal attire, including suits and ties. In the foreground, a long, ornate casket or coffin is visible, suggesting a funeral or a formal presentation of a body. The men are standing behind the casket, and the overall scene is formal and somber.

Discussing choir activities for the year are Mr. Vincent Ahnquist, choral director, Carol Anders, secretary, Lana Berghult, president, and Jim McMillin, vice-president.

It would have thought it was the heavenly angels singing when the U.T.H.S. Choir presented its annual Christmas program this year. In addition to presenting the program to the students of the school and the citizens of the community the choir traveled to Augustana to sing their selections to the Augustana student body.

The choir also sang at Moline and Altemar High Schools on exchange assemblies and for various community functions.

Warming up for one of their many singing appearances are the Ten Keys, consisting of Del Clevenger, Sandy Murphy, Donna Katsis, Margot Moose, LeRoy McMahon, Lafune Johnson, Ruth Hirst, Jerry Koenig, Jo Anne Leland, and Curtis Harsch. The accompanist is Judy Hoover.

DECLAMATION

To further develop an appreciation of good literature, and a skilled delivery of various serious and comedy selections is the aim of declamation work.

Five senior girls, Lana Berghult, Stormy Guber, Karrol Jeffers, Maureen Kelly, and Mary Versypt, were chosen by Mrs. Frederick, speech coach, to help coach underclassmen.

Representing East Moline at the District Speech Contest were Lana Berghult, Mike Carpentier, Bernice Cassidy, Gary Hobbs, Karrol Jeffers, Roberta Lang, Kathy Timmerman, Joanne Versypt, and Mary Versypt.

The first three place winners from the district contest went to the sectional contest March 7 and 14. Representing East Moline were Lana Berghult, Karrol Jeffers, Mary Versypt, Joanne Versypt, and Kathy Timmerman.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is an organization composed of members of the Skyline and Key staffs. This year it was adopted as the John W. Stevens Chapter of Quill and Scroll. Members are chosen by their respective sponsors. Initiation is held in the spring when members receive pins and membership cards. Members also receive through the mail copies of the Quill and Scroll Magazine, a monthly periodical keeping all members up to date on the national organizations.

Judy Riley was the 1st sponsor of Quill and Scroll while Miss LaVona Johnson and Mrs. Beverly Schwartz were co-sponsors.

Looking over the Quill and Scroll charter are members Maureen Kelly, Joy Bates, Carole White, and Margot Moose.

Looking ahead to the Seasonal Speech Contest are Mr. Stevens and some members of the play cast for "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." Gary Hobbs, Nancy Hall, Lonna Ostrom, and Joanne Versypt.

PLAYS

Other members of the cast of the "Barretts" are Karrol Jeffers, Lana Berglund, and Jim Adams.

Recalling the many highlights of the fall play, "Don't Bother Me," are the cast. They are Lana Kean, Lynda Benson, Miki Grunth, Karrol Jeffers, and Jim Adams.

SKYLINE

Photographers for this year's Skyline are Euan Yeager, Gary Hunsen, and Judy Knaack. Typists are Alice Finley, Bernice Cassidy, and Anne Park

Discussing plans for this year's Skyline are the busy sponsor, Miss Lal'ona Johnson, and the editor-in-chief Louise McCreary

Skyline assistants look over old yearbooks. They are Marge Johnson, Alice Nelson, Lynda Benson, Janice Donder, Joanne Versypt. Martha Smith, right, was faculty editor.

Memories! What better word could be found to describe the contents of our school annual, the Skyline? The Skyline is full of memories from the first page of pictures to the closing cover full of best wishes from friends.

This year's Skyline, under the guidance of Miss Johnson, sponsor, and Louise McCreary, editor-in-chief, has the unique significance of being the first Skyline to use a skyline as its theme.

In addition to putting together this year's annual the staff found time to sponsor the "S. S. Skyline" dance, which featured disc jockey Art Stanley, after the Rock Island football game.

Looking over the subscriptions for the Skyline are Eddie Penca, patrons committee; Warren Rowe, business manager; and Wade Wood, patrons manager. Not shown is Bonnie Kay Odendahl, subscriptions manager.

The copywriters for Skyline this year are Karen Edleman, Velma Moose, Judy Summers, Curtis Harsch, Mary Versypt, Kay Ferrer, and Nancy Scott.

The Key owes its fine management and the selection of interesting feature articles to Mrs. Beverly Schwartz, the sponsor

Key editors and managers for this year are Joy Bates, assistant editorial editor; Joyce Bates, news editor; Mike Knight, "Krazy Jackson's Korner"; Pam O'Klock, feature editor; Carole White, managing editor; Ruth Hicksey, assistant sports editor; Kathy Smith, editorial editor; and Judy Riley, sports editor

Other managers are Sandy Sharer, circulation and exchange editor; Carol Anders, advertising manager; Karen Agnew, advertising staff; Judy Servers, assistant business manager; and Darla Reddick, advertising staff

There are holes in all sorts of places, put there for all sorts of reasons. You can even find a hole in our school paper. Yes, "Through the Keyhole" is one of the favorite columns of the school paper — the joke column.

The Key, which comes out once every three weeks, is under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Schwartz, sponsor, and Carole White, editor-in-chief.

All stories appearing in the Key are written by its staff of reporters. The editors first read and edit the reporters' work and then send it to the printers where it is set up in print. The stories then come back to the staff on long strips of paper for proofreading. Once they are proofread, they are again sent back to the printer where the Keys are then run off in the form as we know them.

In addition to meeting deadlines, reading copy and proof, the staff sponsored the "Sleigh Ride" dance after our basketball game with Jefferson.

Special mention should be given to Pam O'Klock, who was Last Moline's correspondent with the Sunday Democrat Times, and to Mike Knight, the author of "Krazy Jackson's Korner."

KEY

All smiles. Miss Helen Janne and Mr. Vincent Ahnquist accept the victors trophy from Lynda Benson for winning the faculty-student volleyball game Reigning as this year's King and Queen of Sports were Lonnie Ostrom and Donna Katsis. Runners up for this much-desired honor were Lana Berghult and Gary Hobbs.

This year's royalty had the pleasure of witnessing the first faculty win over the students in the annual student-faculty volleyball game. In the second assembly, however, the sophomore volleyball team won the honors by overpowering the faculty 18 to 13.

Gary.
 This is just what I need a nice clean pat.
 who tell you how much I hate first I'll list all my gr.
 you then I can think of any I and then good. things. No I'm just kidding tell you even though we both are kind of down seriously at time you're a real nice guy (way down acting and I'm glad I know you -- (and pooch 100% deep) a lot of fun (or else be good). Maybe when
 Have a lot of grow up and quit fighting all the time we both can be friends. Bye love
